18. REFUNDS

- 18.1. We, or a Promoter, may alter or vary any published Event(s) programme which may result in changes to some elements of the performance line-up, playing times, start and finish times of those Event(s), or any other aspect of those Event(s). Neither we nor our authorised Ticket agents nor a Promoter (unless otherwise stated by the Promoter) will be liable to you or any other person for any refunds or other costs, expenses or other losses resulting from such alteration, unless it is a Material Alteration which, in a situation where you have purchased a ticket from us or our authorised Ticket agents, gives a right to a refund under section 18.2 and in which case our only liability will be to issue a refund in accordance with section 18.7. Where you have purchased a Ticket from a Promoter or a Promoter's authorised Ticket agent, you will need to contact them with regards any refund.
- 18.2. You will only be entitled to a refund from us of any Ticket you have purchased directly from us or through our authorised Ticket agents, in the following circumstances: i) if any Event(s) are cancelled in full; ii) if the Ticket is for any Event(s) which are postponed entirely and such Event(s) are rescheduled to another date unless you elect to use any existing Ticket which you hold for such rescheduled Event(s) under section 18.4 below; iii) in the event of a Material Alteration which gives you the right to a refund under applicable law; or iv) as otherwise required under applicable law. Where you have purchased a Ticket from a Promoter or a Promoter's authorised Ticket agent, you will need to contact them with regards any refund.
- 18.3. A Material Alteration is a change which in our reasonable opinion makes the affected Event(s) materially different to the Event(s) which all Ticket purchasers, taken generally, could reasonably expect as judged by reference to the nature and billing of such Event(s). The following are not Material Alterations: changes to the artists unless the affected Event(s) you are attending is a concert with a clear headline act; changes to acts and the use of understudies in theatre performances; changes to any advertised attractions or facilities; changes to performance times; changes to individual band members; shortening of the affected Event(s) when the majority of it is performed in full; delays or changes to start times of the affected Event(s) or a performance; a change of venue to another location within a reasonable radius (in our discretion) of the planned Event(s).
- 18.4. Where the affected Event(s) are rescheduled to another date, unless otherwise notified by a Promoter, you may elect to use the existing Ticket for the rescheduled Event(s) in which case you will not be entitled to a refund.
- 18.5. Where you have purchased a ticket from us or our authorised Ticket agent, unless we and/or our authorised Ticket agent states otherwise, all refunds will be for the face value of the Ticket purchased (or proportionate amount where we agree to refund you for any affected Event(s) which have been cancelled part-way through) only and you will not be entitled to a refund of booking fees, transaction charges or delivery costs. Personal arrangements including travel, subsistence and accommodation in relation to the Event(s) which have been arranged by you are made at your own risk and neither the authorised Ticket agent nor us will have any liability for any such loss of enjoyment or wasted expenditure in the case of a cancellation, postponement or otherwise. Where you have purchased a Ticket from a Promoter or a Promoter's authorised Ticket agent, you will need to contact them with regards any refund.
- 18.6.
